

Before diving into function composition, it is important that you have a good understanding of a few important JavaScript concepts. I've provided links to tutorials I have created on my YouTube channel in order to review the following three concepts. If you feel you don't need to review these concepts, feel free to move to the next topic.

- First Class Functions
- Higher Order Functions
- Closure